The sky is blue.

Description (optional)

While we say the sky is blue, it actually just appears that way because the blue spectrum is scattered more than other colors. For more info check out this site from NASA <http://spaceplace.nasa.gov/blue-sky/>
